• In 2016, through our year-round federally funded after school and summer meal programs, the YMCA of Silicon Valley provided a total of 489,625 healthy meals and snacks to children in low-income areas, including more than 92,000 meals and snacks during the summer.

This summer, the YMCA of Silicon Valley's Summer Food Program is offered once again with support from our partners: Stanford School of Medicine, the California Summer Meal Coalition, Second Harvest Food Bank, Revolution Foods, San Jose Giants and numerous different local school districts and libraries.

On Friday, June 2, the YMCA hosted the Summer Food Kick Off Celebration at the Edenvale Branch Library, 101 Branham Lane East, San Jose, CA 95111. The celebration included a story reading with the San Jose Giants, an Iron Chef cooking workshop, and a provided lunch. Mayor Sam Liccardo, Council Member Sergio Jimenez, City Librarian Jill Bourne, and YMCA of Silicon Valley CEO, Sandy Berlin Walker, all made an appearance and joined the families in a day of fun.
